New for 2008 –The LetsRun.Com Old School Collegiate Mile

On behalf of Wejo and Rojo you are cordially invited to Cambridge, Ontario to take part in the Letsrun.Com Old School Collegiate Mile. This event on June 14th gives collegiate runners a chance to share the track with some of the best in the world. You may not run a PR, but you will run inspired and leave with a true feeling of what it means to race old school.

Register today as the collegiate field is limited to just 60 runners!

- Heats on Friday, June 13th with the top 14 making it to the final on Saturday.
- Live music that includes a stellar hip hop group, and a 27 piece band from South Africa.
- Post race gathering where you can mix and mingle with past and present legends.

Since its inception in 2004 this humble field of dreams has received support from Sir Roger Bannister, Marcus O'Sullivan and many other legends of the mile. The goal in Cambridge is simple... to stage the most exciting and meaningful footrace in the world!

We offer a unique experience that takes you back to that historic day of May 6th, 1954. In 2007, Osaka's bronze medalist Shadrack Korir jump started his season by winning the Classic Mile in record fashion with a spectacular 3:56.05.

The following runners have been Kick'n it old school since 2004...

Reid Coolsaet, Luke Watson, Laban Rotich, Hilary Edmonson, Matt Kerr, Jay Cantin, Blake Bolden, Nate Brannen, Carmen Douma-Hussar, Dylan Wykes, Wes Alkin, Tim Konoval, Krestena Sullivan, Megan Brown, Ro McGettigan, Courtney Babcock, Megan Metcalfe, Shadrack Korir, Boaz Cheboiywo and many more.
